FOREWORD

The goal of Hillsboro High School is to develop future generations of civic and professional leaders and other productive members of society. To achieve this end, the school must be constantly aware of the broad range of talents and capabilities in order that these talents may emerge and develop.

The high school student looks to the teaching faculty and parents for inspiration and guidance, in addition to instruction in subject matter. The daily contact of a student with a teacher helps to develop the student into an intellectually mature person by giving him a knowledge of and an insight into relationships of men and matter which books alone cannot impart. In speaking for ourselves and the student body, the members of the annual staff would like to thank the parents and faculty of Hillsboro High School for showing us the doorway to education. We also hope that this annual will give pleasure and bring back memories and thoughts for many years.

DEDICATION

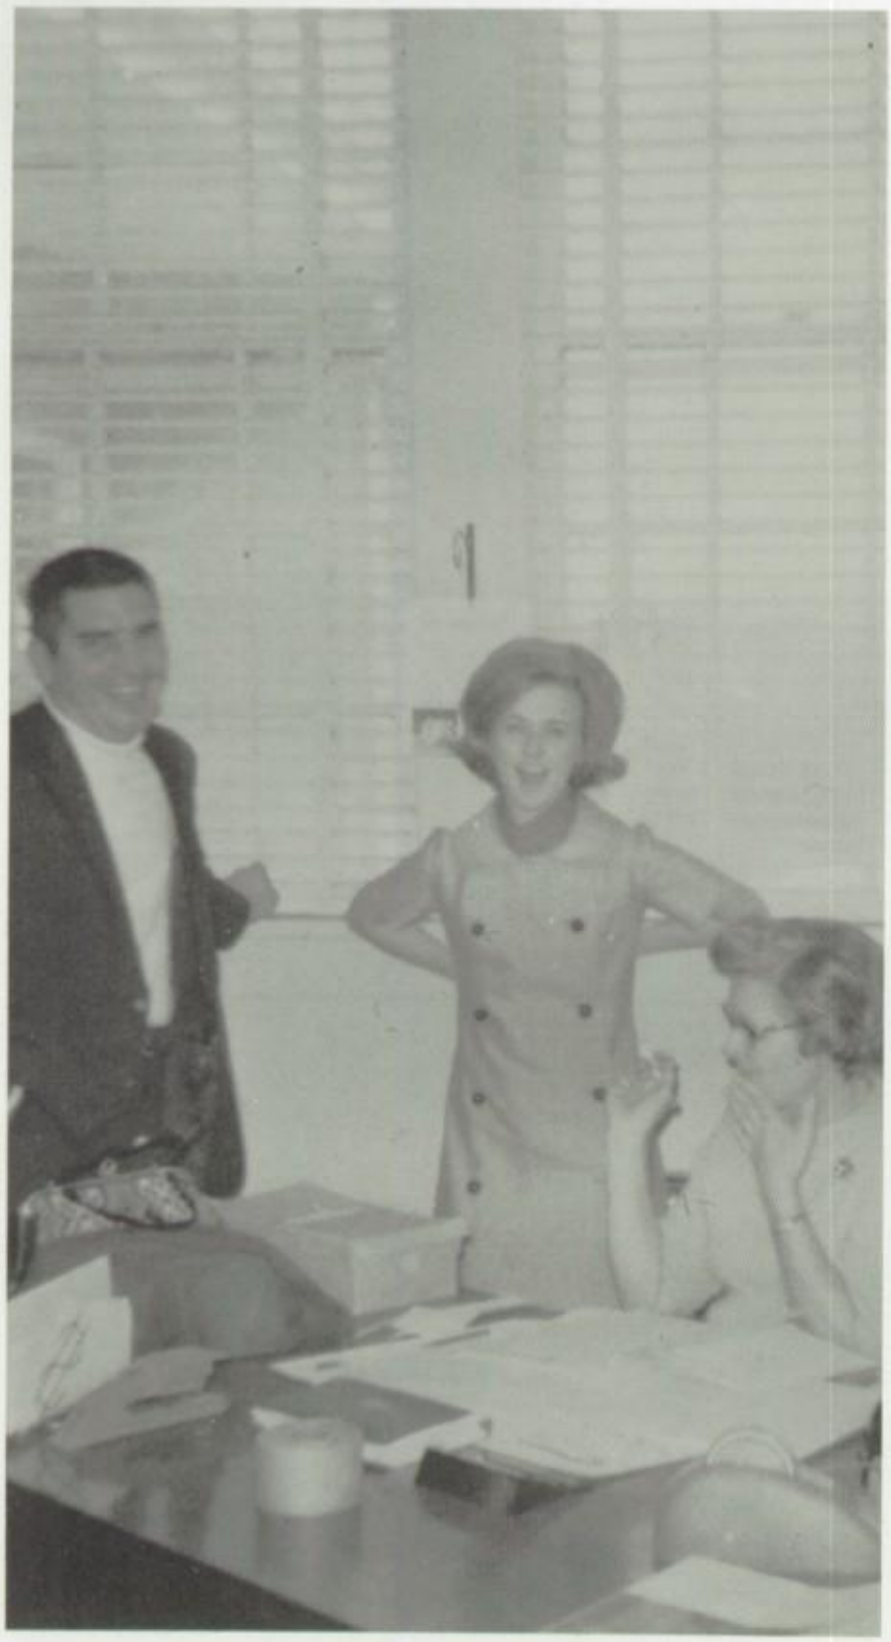
We, the student body of Hillsboro High School wish to dedicate our annual, "The 1969 Chieftain" to Mrs. Katherine Whitehurst in order to show our appreciation for the many years of loyalty and devotion she has shown the school and all of us.

Mrs. Whitehurst, who has taught for twenty-nine years, has helped toward channeling our minds in the right direction. There have been meetings, exams, experiments, sorrow, joy, victory, defeat, school assemblies, and speeches. All of these experiences have been important in our growth and education. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Whitehurst for her help in helping us to accomplish our goals.

Mrs. Whitehurst has been chaperoning the basketball teams for thirteen years. We are sure that all of the previous basketball teams appreciate her support and loyalty as much as the team of 1968-1969.

Regardless of the path we shall choose in life, she has helped all of us to add meaning and purpose to our lives.

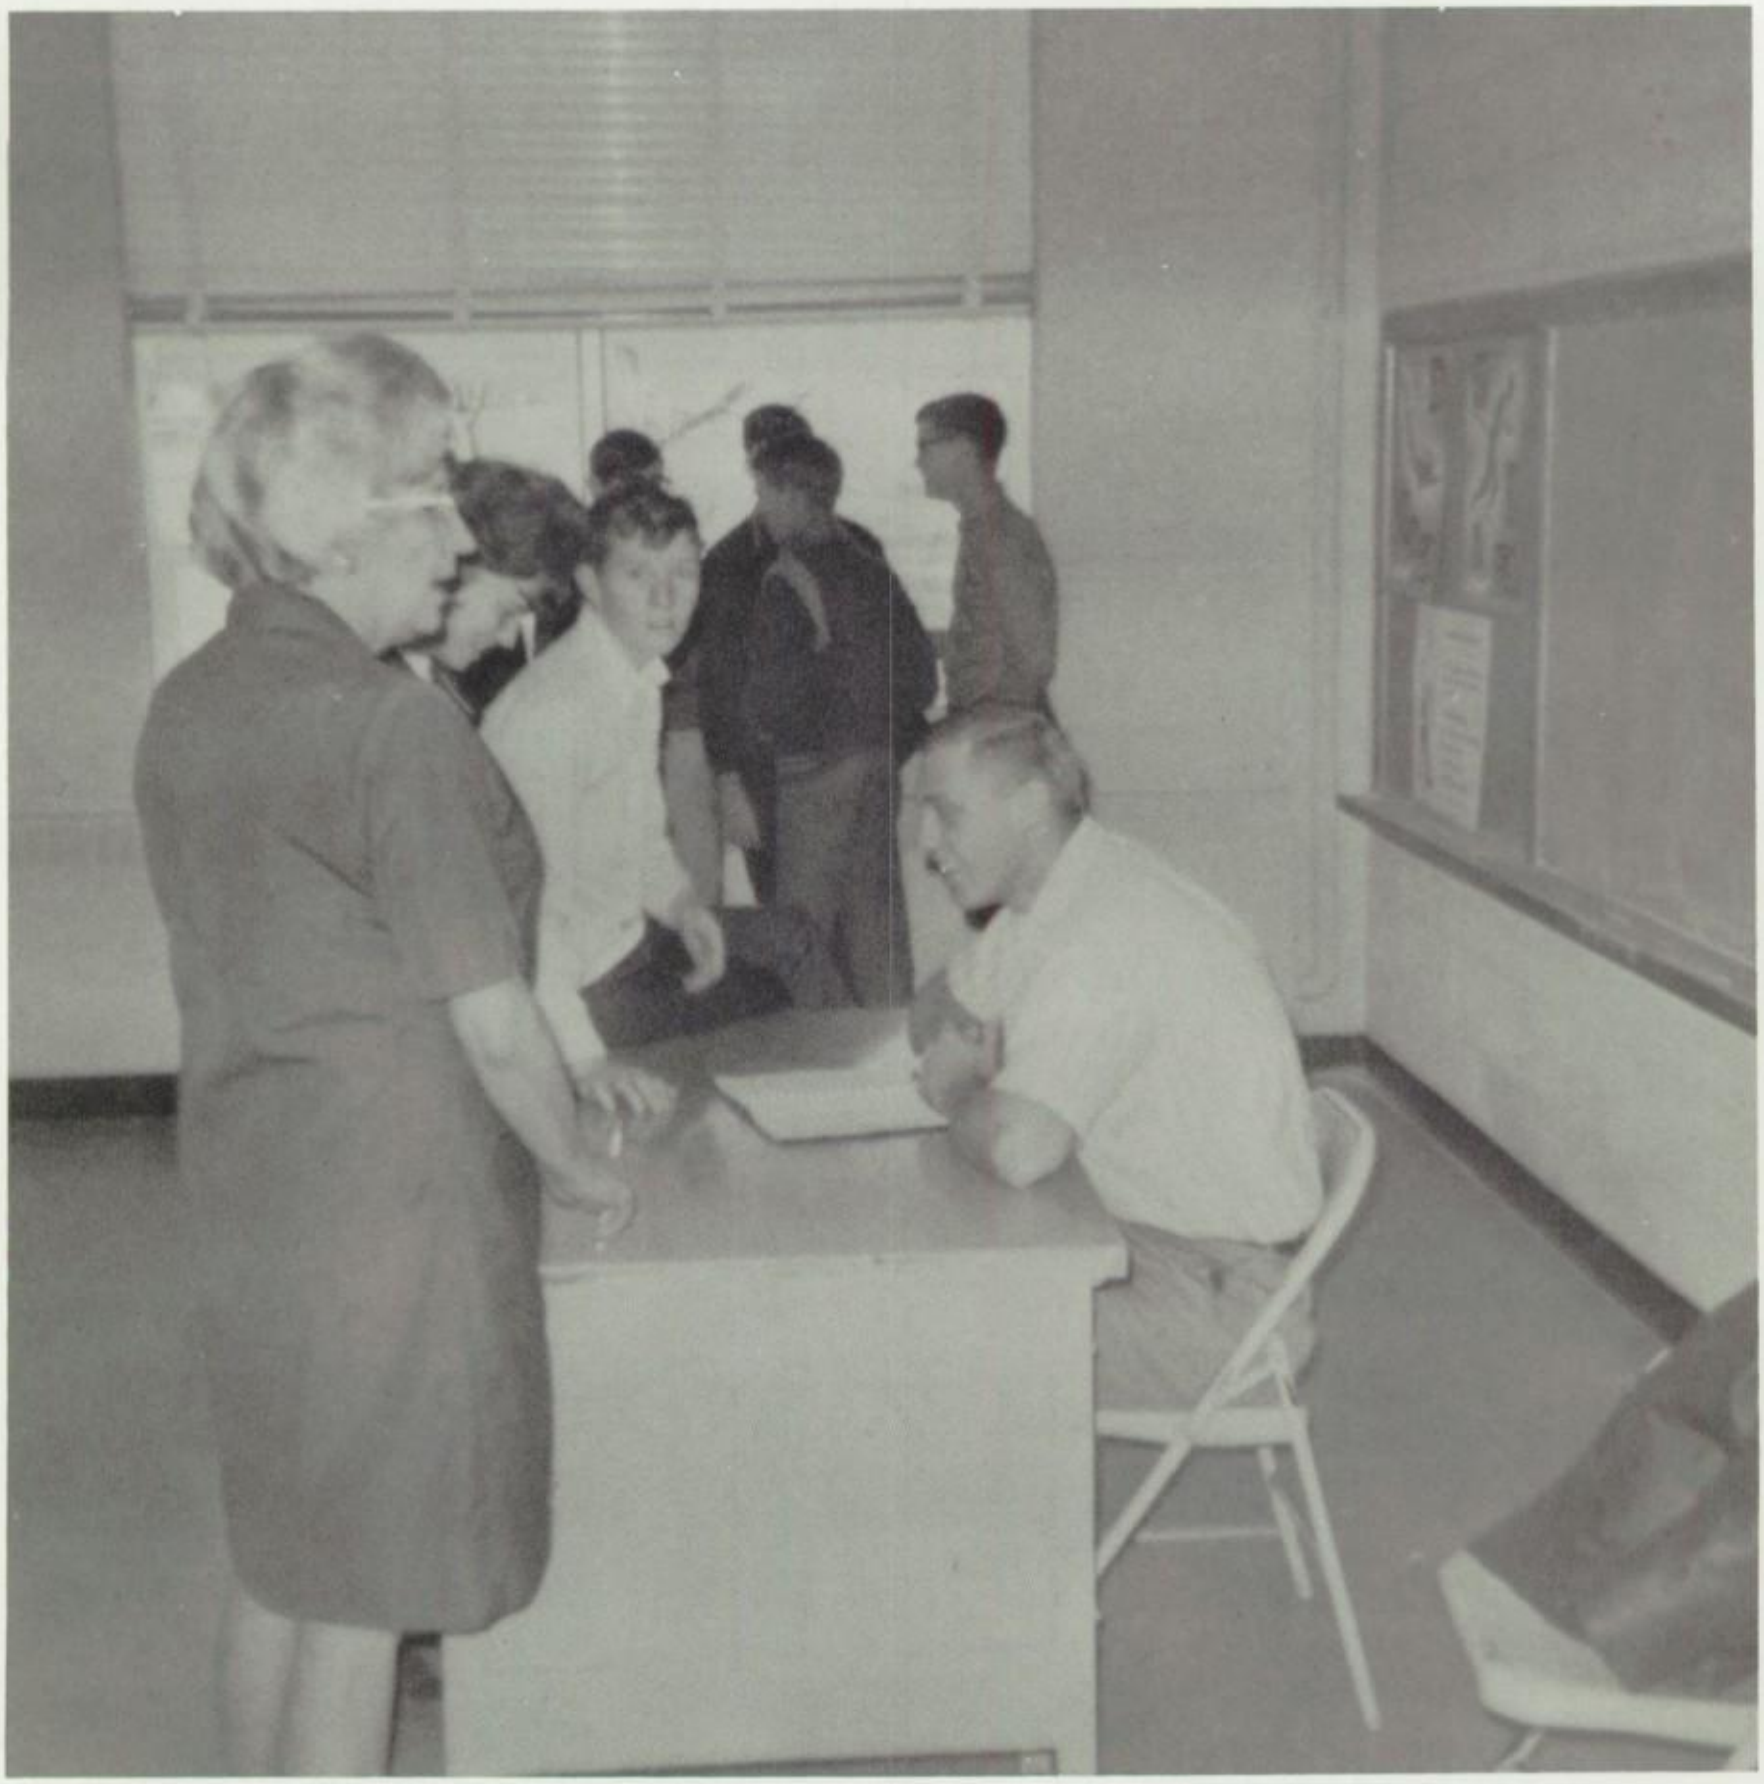
Doorway to Wisdom



"Charlie, you did it again!"

"Bet you $5, they all fail this test!"

These are the people who help guide and encourage students to open the doors of the future, of learning, and of hard work. We respect them and appreciate their supervision. They make up our faculty and administration.



FACULTY

OFFICE WORK

"I'll be a lap-sitting secretary yet!"

"What's this, a coffee stain?"

PRINCIPAL

We, the student body of Hillsboro High School, would like to welcome Mr. Jesse Frank, our new principal. Mr. Frank is a graduate from Franklin High School. He was graduated from Peabody and is currently doing graduate work at Middle Tennessee State University in Public Schools Administration. He has taught at Fairview Elementary and has been principal at Trinity Elementary School for seven years.

Mr. Frank is married to the former Miss Ann Elizabeth Ferguson. They have two children, Jessica Ann, age 7, and John John, age 5. His children attend school at Franklin Elementary. Mr. Frank is a member of the First Baptist Church in Franklin.

In the few short months he has been at Hillsboro High School, he has grown to be respected and liked by the faculty, the students, and the parents alike.

Portals of Learning

"If you'll help me, I'll help you."

"And she expects us to wear it?"

Throughout these various scholarly doors pass many bright-eyed students, eager to learn, to think, and to play. At Hillsboro they study and gather together in classes.

"Keep your cool Mr. Walker, we'll find it!"

SCHOOL LIFE

PROPHECY

My time machine is set for 1979,
Let no brave people be left behind.
So let's go ten years ahead of time,
And see what's happened to the Seniors of '69.

There's Joan McKee who's always loved Jimmie Gray,
She says she's still waiting for their wedding day.
Nancy Southall with all her basketball fame,
To Buddy Johnson's she's added her name.

In H.H.S. Jimmy Davis still has his name,
For now he's the janitor and has no shame.
Doug Hargrove who was always a whirl,
Has now invented a thing they call instant girl.

Oh, my goodness, this place I think I've seen,
There's Linda King chasing that same boy again.
Remember Bobby Buford who could sing like Elvis?
He now has all the girls making the boys jealous.

There's Joyce Burke always willing to fight,
Says she's still looking for her Mr. Right.
Alice Anglin is a movie star,
Tonight she's having dinner with the famous Jack Parr.

Gregory Anglin who never had much knowledge,
Could never finish it, so he burned the college.
Janet Stinson, who was always shy,
Now has nine kids and a real nice guy.

There's little Janice McNeil, a real swell gal,
Now is a singer and goes by the name of Sal.
Phil Jones who was never real mean,
Is now on a diet where he can eat only lean.

Elaine Baker who's ambition was to get married,
Now to court three divorces she's carried.
Jean Beard who was never square,
Now works as a stripper for the World's Fair.

Eddie Anglin, a very tall fellow,
Says when it comes to fighting Judy, he's yellow.
Remember Mike Daubenspeck who at a dance always stood by the wall,
Well, now, when it comes to girls, he has them all.

Billy Anglin, sometimes called Cuz,
Has joined the police force and is now called Fuzz.
Eula Cutliff who once said she would kill,
Says Gregory Anglin will soon find she will.

Margaret Hargrove, always full of pep,
Now comes out of a cake and has to watch her step.
Carolyn Martin who was no one's shadow,
Says the road to love is long and narrow.

Randy Goodreau who used to ride a motor bike,
Now says there's only one girl he'll ever like.
James Stinson, nobody's fool,
Has established a Geisha House with only one rule.

I guess everyone remembers Larry Nall, our friend,
To everyone his services he's promised to lend.
David Hardin who once a '55 Chevy did wreck,
Just wrecked a 1970 and only said "Heck!"

In a jewelry store I found Lester King,
Yes he was, he was buying a wedding ring.
Butch Stewart who once called a girl angel,
Married 20 girls and is now in a tangle.

Trixie Whidby who never meant anyone harm,
Now lives with a nice guy and their 10 kids on a farm.
We have finished our journey where we've traveled so far,
Back to '69 and the present we'll go without a jar.

THE GATEWAY TO HAPPINESS . . .

Through the doorways of classrooms, study halls, the library, and gymnasium, we pass with our acquaintances as classmates, but it is through the club rooms that we change those acquaintances to friends through associations in our clubs and organizations.

"This is better than going to class!"

"Dirty Pictures?"

"Yell John; don't watch Carolyn!"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Larry Nall, do hereby will my heart, soul, and mind to Mrs. Dedman.

I, Trixie Whidby, do hereby will my ability to make A's in Mr. Davis' Civics Class to any girl who can cross her legs.

I, Lester King, do hereby will my ability to drive a car to David Hardin.

I, Linda King, do hereby will my ability to drag race without getting caught to Miss Barrett and Mr. Blackwell.

I, Butch Stewart, do hereby will my ability to stay out of classes to Joe King.

I, Joyce Burke, do hereby will my ability to get into trouble to Paulette Edwards and Donna Burke.

I, Jimmy Davis, do hereby will my ability to skip class and jump out of windows to my brother, Gary.

I, Elaine Baker, do hereby will my ability to skip study hall to my brother, David.

I, Randy Goodreau, do hereby will my Ford to Trixie Whidby 'cause she is fool enough to want it and my books to Patricia Rust because I love her neck!

I, Alice Anglin, do hereby will my ability to be a lap-sitting secretary to Elaine Baker.

I, Doug Hargrove, do hereby will my ability to get along with the teachers and at the same time give them trouble to my brother, Mark.

I, Carolyn Martin, do hereby will my ability to act like a nut to my sister, Joanne.

I, Phil Jones, do hereby will all my answer books back to Mrs. Dedman.

I, Margaret Hargrove, do hereby will my ability to stay off of Cotton and Squeaky Bridge to Paulette Edwards.

I, James Stinson, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Mayfield to anybody who needs it.

I, Janice McNeil, do hereby will my seat in fourth period study hall to anyone who wants it.

I, Mike Daubenspeck, do hereby will my ability to get along with May Love to Charles Blackwell.

I, Nancy Southall, do hereby will twenty-five pounds to Barbara Southall providing she does not let it go to her feet.

I, Eddie Anglin, do hereby will nothing to nobody because I need all I've got.

I, Jean Beard, do hereby will my ability to act silly in Home Room to Mary Plemons and Jo Marie Osborne.

I, Billy Anglin, do hereby will my '57 Ford back to L. D. Davis' Garage.

I, Eula Cutliff, do hereby will my ability to lift weights to Bob Hargrove.

I, Gregory Anglin, do hereby will my ability to roll a Volkswagon over to Mrs. Holland.

I, Janet Stinson, do hereby will all my books to Debbie Stinson, who wants them so much.

I, Jimmy Gray, do hereby will Mr. Mayfield's Driver's Education Class to David Hardin.

I, Joan McKee, do hereby will my ability to get serious to Judy McKee.

I, David Hardin, do hereby will my ability to turn a curve to Bobby Buford

"Hurry up, Mrs. Holland, we're hungry!"

"Ain't we cute!"

"Well, ma!"

"OK, Bob, I'll push!"

"Oh, my back!"

"She's got her finger in it!"

"What's the latest gossip?"

"What Trixie thinks of the ANNUAL!"

"Sweet and innocent."

"We lost!"

"Ain't he sweet?"

"Guess what he's doing — after what?"
